THE PECK COMPANY
EASTERN AVE. ST. JOHNSBURY

Speaks at St. J. Center.

P. F. Hazen was the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. war work meeting held in the Congregational church at St. Johnsbury Center Thursday night. A very interesting meeting was held. There was music by a ladies' quartet composed of Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Frank H. Taylor, Mrs. F. Miner and Mrs. George Cary. Mrs. Homer Carpenter was accompanist and cornet soloist.

F. G. BUNDY RECEIVER FOR CALEDONIAN CO.

Judge Harland B. Howe of the United States District Court has appointed F. G. Bundy of St. Johnsbury, receiver for the Caledonian Company, Inc.

The appointment of Mr. Bundy assures the continuance of the publication of the Daily and Weekly Caledonian, and the conduct of the job printing business the same as usual.

RISE TIME

On cold mornings, a bit of fun and the good cheery warmth of a Perfection Oil Heater make getting up easier.

The Perfection soon drives out the chill. The generous warmth encourages a feeling of fitness at the very beginning of the day.

Convenient, economical, the Perfection quickly warms any room in the house. Yields glowing warmth for eight hours on a single gallon of kerosene.

Now used in more than 3,000,000 homes.

Re-wicking is now easy with the new No. 500 Perfection Heater Wick. Comes trimmed and burned off, all ready for use.

So-CO-ny Kerosene gives best results.

FIRST VERMONT BAND AND THRILLS MANY AT CONCERT AND BALL

Crowds Greet Camp Bartlett Boys as They Detrain and Company G. Escorts Them to Armory—Musical Organization Pleases Audience With Delightful Repertoire

The First Vermont Regimental Band playing at the Armory last evening to a packed house added another captivated audience to its long string of trophies gathered in its triumphal tour of the state. Not for years has a musical organization of any kind pleased a St. Johnsbury audience as did "our own boys" from Camp Bartlett. With an excellently varied repertoire, under the exceptional leadership of Max I. Krulke, the band more than lived up to the reputation which preceded them.

Big Crowd Welcomes. The welcome given the boys as they stepped from the train was typical of the town. The streets lined with hundreds of cheering, eager people made them feel their welcome and Company G. acted as their military escort. The boys showed plenty of "pep" as they struck into a lively march and swung through the crowds which thronged the streets. Company G. showed the excellence of their training of the past few weeks as they escorted the First Vermonters to the Armory.

Excellent Program.

From the first crashing strains of "Tannhauser" through the evening's program until the closing bars of "The Star Spangled Banner," the hundreds of people who crowded the big drill shed sat entranced under the way of the band. The repertoire of the band on the musical classics was done with a technique which reflects both credit to the individual members of the organization and to their efficient leader.

In addition to the prearranged program the continued applause called for many encores. An insistent audience brought a welcome response from Conductor Krulke following his cornet solo, while the difficult selection stood out boldly. As an encore Mr. Krulke played "The Rosary." Kenneth H. Gale of Barre, assistant band master, directed the musicians during the cornet solo and proved that the organization possessed an excellent second line of defense.

Frank H. Brooks gave a short talk on Y. M. C. A. work during the concert program. Mr. Brooks spoke of the great work being done in town on the drive now underway, and in a strong plea appealed for a united effort to carry the campaign to an overwhelming finish. The announcement that Lyndonville has reached and passed her allotment of $1500 in the Y. M. C. A. drive was greeted with cheers.

Dance Floor Crowded.

From the grand march of the 16 number dance order to the final snappy one step, "Send Me Away With a Smile," the big dance floor was filled with a happy crowd of exponents of the terviscorean art. Major and Mrs. John Tinker led the grand march. Showing their expertness in playing dance music even as they had shortly before thrilled the audience with bits of grand opera and other kindred classics, the First Vermont band gave the dancers who flocked the floor a delightful evening. Their dance program contained all the latest martial dance pieces the war has called forth. The concert program was as follows:

March, Tannhauser, Wagner; overture, William Tell, Rossini; waltz, Italian Nights, Laurendeau; cornet solo, Max I. Krulke, Selected; selection, Tobani; Echoes from Metropolitan Opera House; selection, Fortune Teller, Herbert.

1st Vt. Officers Present.

Guests of honor for the evening were: Major Tinker, 1st Vermont Infantry; Captain H. A. Wilcox, 1st Vermont Infantry, and Frank H. Brooks. On the band committee were: James H. Best, first sergeant, headquarters company of the First Vermont Infantry, and Kenneth H. Gale, assistant band leader.

The ladies of the board branch of the Red Cross served ice cream and wafers in the billiard room of the Armory. The following ladies were on the committee in charge: Mrs. H. H. Carr, Mrs. C. A. Burrows, Mrs. Herbert Moore, Mrs. Samuel Moore, Mrs. William Orcutt, Mrs. Oscar Beck and Miss Josephine Peck.

The members of Company G of the Vermont Reserve Militia acted as usher during the concert and ball, and aided in many ways to make the evening the big success it was. The First Vermont band will leave here immediately for Camp Bartlett, and it is expected that before many days they will leave for an unknown destination which many say will be "somewhere in France."

EAST BURKE

(Mrs. B. F. Humphrey, Cor.)

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Humphrey of Lyndonville visited at the home of his brother, B. F. Humphrey, Friday and Saturday. Rev. E. W. Sturtevant was in St. Johnsbury Friday to attend the 24th annual session of the Caledonia County Sunday School Association held in the North Congregational church. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderson of Sutton were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Caswell. Rufus Carter has taken a lumber job in Egypt and will move his family there soon. Mrs. George Cole was taken to St. Johnsbury Sunday, where she was operated on for appendicitis from which she is recovering nicely.

R. A. Eggleston is here from Canaan Center, N. H., for a few days visiting friends and hunting deer. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James have shipped their goods to Lynn, Mass. They go next week. Oliver Counter and sons, Louis, Nelson and Esther, were at the St. Johnsbury hospital Sunday to see Mrs. Counter, who is making good recovery from an operation for appendicitis. Master Carroll H. Rice, who makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lunge, has given up going to Lyndon Institute on account of poor health. Miss Emily Parker from Connecticut spent the week-end at Charles Ball's. Remember the box supper and dance at the hall this week, Friday night, for the benefit of the Red Cross. Mrs. Lilla Walter of West Burke is keeping house for her daughter, Mrs. George Cole, while she is in the hospital. Rev. E. W. Sturtevant was in Danville Thursday to attend a meeting of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty. Isaac Lunge of Irasburg is making a visit among his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. James Lunge, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Drown and others. The Red Cross meeting will be held this week, Thursday afternoon, in the vestry. The Christmas bazaar for our boys will be held.

W. H. Jeffrey was home from Montpelier for the week-end. Mrs. J. L. Eggleston, Mrs. Clarence Morse and three children of Canaan Center, N. H., are visiting at their father, B. F. Humphrey. G. L. Eggleston spent Sunday there, returning home Monday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year at Burke Mountain Grange last Wednesday night: Master, P. S. Harris; overseer, H. D. Webster; lecturer, Grace Cole; steward, Rev. E. W. Sturtevant; assistant steward, John Wright; lady assistant steward, Lillian Wright; chaplain, Ella Webster; treasurer, Nellie Caswell; secretary, Ray Burrington; Ceres, Bessie Harris; Flora, Edna Welch; Pomona, Floy Gibson; gatekeeper, Lewis Counter. War time refreshments were served. M. H. Gilson, who has worthy master for nine years, was presented with a nice chair in appreciation of his work during those years. Rev. E. W. Sturtevant made the presentation speech and Mr. Gilson responded in an able manner. The next meeting will be held Dec. 12, followed by a masquerade promenade.

WEST DANVILLE

(Mrs. E. F. Ayer, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Hastings of Waterbury were over Sunday guests of his brother, Gilbert Hastings. All members of the Red Cross are requested to meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. C. Farrington. Ayer spent Sunday at Harley Ayer's at Danville. Mrs. Oliver McCosco is stopping at St. Johnsbury.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. E. D. Gray of Concord was a business visitor in town yesterday. Mrs. Elizabeth Huff of Lynn, Mass., has been spending a few days in town as the guest of Mrs. H. M. Kelley.

The End of Your Corns

Pain Stops at Once—Corns Lifts. There is nothing in the world like "Gets-It" for corns. Just apply it at once and then the corn lifts off as clean as a whistle. No fuss, no bother, no danger. "Gets-It," you know, is safe. Millions have used it, more than all other corn remedies combined, and it never fails.

There is no need for you to go through another day of corn agony. But be sure you get "Gets-It." Accept nothing else for, remember, there is positively nothing else as good. "Gets-It" never irritates the live flesh, never makes the toe sore. You can go about as usual with work or play, while "Gets-It" the magic, does all the work. Then the corn peels right off like a banana skin, and leaves the toe as smooth and corn-free as your palm. Never happened before, did it? Guess not. Get a bottle of "Gets-It" today from any drug store, you need pay no more than 25c, or sent on receipt of price by Charles A. Seales & Co.

NEWARK

(Mrs. M. W. Ball, Correspondent.)

The funeral of George Chamberlin, who died early Sunday morning, was held in the Union church Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, his pastor, Rev. Glenn Douglass, officiating. The flowers were many and beautiful. Interment was in Pleasant Hill cemetery. The relatives from out of town were Charles Brown and Ed. Brown, nieces, Miss Lora Kelley, Miss Ida Bassett all of Colebrook, N. H. George Chamberlin, the last of the family of 13 children, was born in Colebrook, N. H., in 1840, and 48 years ago married Sarah Brown of Stewartstown, N. H., with whom he has lived ever since. To them were born five children, two of whom are living, Mrs. Lilla Buzzell of this town and Mrs. George Newman of Westmore. The family moved here from Canaan 11 years ago and during that time have made many friends and acquaintances. The aged wife, who has so tenderly cared for him, ministering to his every need, and the daughters also have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. Mrs. Mary J. Annis has just received a letter from her son, Prot. Edwin Annis, 101st Machine Gun Battalion, Co. C, who enlisted from this town and is now somewhere in England. He writes he is well and enjoyed the voyage over very much, that the boys are full of courage and are sure they'll win. While driving out of L. O. Sleeper's doorway Tuesday, Mrs. Mary J. Annis and daughter, Mrs. Mary J. Annis, were struck by a car, which caused them to sustain many injuries. Mrs. Annis is now in Brightlook Hospital and is comfortable. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bruce of East Burke visited in town this week. Miss Inez Goodwin of this town and Jesse Counter of East Burke, left quietly last Wednesday for a trip to Montreal. Congratulations.

Hazelton and daughter, Edith, and Laura Dow spent Sunday in Lebanon, N. H., as guests of Frank Morse. Miss Ethel Thayer, who has been spending several days with Mrs. R. H. Hazelton, has returned to her home in Boston. Mrs. Fred Bryant and daughter, Gladys, were visitors of Belle Fairbanks Wednesday. Claude Emery of Monroe, N. H., was in town Thursday. Mrs. Alfred Cheney of Monroe was a visitor in Barnet Wednesday.

ORLEANS.

(Clara L. Dwinell, Correspondent.)

Dr. R. M. Wells, medical examiner in the schools, has recently re-examined the grade pupils who revealed any abnormal conditions in September. It is worthy of note that many of the defects have been corrected. Mrs. Margaret Wilkie is quite ill at her home on East street. Little Kenneth Willey is very much improved. H. S. Webster carried Mrs. Webster to Island Pond on Wednesday. From that point she went by train to Berlin, N. H., to visit her son, Clifton Webster. The many friends of Miss Alsey Young, a graduate of our high school, will be sorry to learn of her illness with pneumonia. She is in Swanton where she has been teaching. Mrs. Hazel Elbridge Allen and two children of Jraftsbury are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Eldridge. The W. C. T. U. will tender a reception to the teachers of the Orleans High and graded schools, in the Congregational chapel Tuesday evening, Nov. 20. An interesting program is being prepared for the occasion. Miss Gladys Head of Albany was a recent visitor in town.
